This activity organized by National Service Scheme Department, Arts, Commerce and Science College, Kharepatan. In an effort to raise awareness about COVID-19, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized an innovative poster-making activity. The aim of this initiative was to educate and inform society about the critical aspects of COVID-19, including preventive measures, symptoms, and the importance of vaccination. NSS volunteers were encouraged to create informative and visually engaging posters and to share these through various social media platforms, thereby extending the reach of the awareness campaign to a broader audience. The activity was conducted online, utilizing digital tools to facilitate participation and dissemination. This approach ensured safety and adherence to social distancing norms while maximizing engagement and outreach. 28 dedicated NSS volunteers actively participated in this event. Their enthusiasm and creativity were instrumental in the success of the campaign, as they effectively utilized their skills to create impactful and educational posters.

Through this online COVID-19 awareness campaign, the NSS Department demonstrated the power of collective effort and digital platforms in combating misinformation and fostering a well-informed community. The volunteers' contributions were highly appreciated, and their work played a crucial role in spreading crucial health information during the pandemic.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, organizing traditional group tree plantation activities was not feasible. To adhere to social distancing guidelines, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, initiated a decentralized approach to Van Mahotsav Saptah, celebrated from 1st to 7th July. Students were encouraged to plant at least ten saplings each in their own properties, relatives' or villagers' properties, or public places. The students were requested to send photographs of their plantation efforts to a dedicated WhatsApp group to track participation and progress.

The response from students was enthusiastic and resulted in the planting of approximately 1,189 saplings across their home villages. The saplings included varieties such as Cashew, Kokam, and Coconut. Some notable participants in this initiative were Santosh Lotankar, Gurunath Bhosale, Aditi Bhalekar, Prajka Gade, Prathamesh Narkar, Mayur More, and Dashrath Ingale, who actively contributed to this green cause.

In total, seven participants were directly involved in the plantation activity, impacting a significant number of community members who benefited from the increased greenery and environmental awareness. This initiative not only fostered a sense of responsibility towards nature among students but also contributed positively to their local ecosystems. The success of the Van Mahotsav Saptah underlines the importance of individual efforts in contributing to a larger environmental impact, even during challenging times.

On November 26, 2020, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a Shramdan activity within the college campus and the new building premises. This initiative aimed to foster community spirit and emphasize the importance of contributing to the upkeep and beautification of our educational environment. The event commenced at 10:15 AM and witnessed enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members.

The college principal, Dr. Atmaram D. Kamble, along with esteemed professors Prof. Prakash Sinde and Prof. Nayan Ugale, graced the occasion. The NSS Program Officer, Shri Vaseem Sayyed, led the activity, guiding the participants in various tasks such as cleaning, planting saplings, and arranging the new building's premises. The absence of a formal chief guest, chairperson, or guest of honor underscored the collective nature of the Shramdan, highlighting that every participant played a crucial role in the day's success.

Throughout the event, participants engaged in tasks that not only improved the physical surroundings but also fostered a sense of teamwork and responsibility. The activity served as a practical lesson in environmental stewardship, illustrating the impact of collaborative efforts in maintaining and enhancing communal spaces. It also provided an opportunity for students to apply classroom learning to real-world scenarios, reinforcing the college's commitment to holistic education.

Following the conclusion of the Shramdan activities, refreshments were provided to all participants, offering a moment for reflection and camaraderie. This gesture of appreciation acknowledged the hard work and dedication demonstrated by everyone involved.

In summary, the Shramdan activity organized by the NSS Department was a resounding success, achieving its objectives of promoting cleanliness, environmental consciousness, and community collaboration. The participation and support from the college administration and faculty members were instrumental in the event's success, reinforcing the college's mission to cultivate socially responsible individuals.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized an impactful HIV-AIDS Week aimed at raising awareness and educating participants on HIV/AIDS prevention and management. The event featured a series of informative sessions and activities designed to enlighten attendees about the critical aspects of HIV/AIDS, its prevention, and its societal impact.

The orientation session, which was a key highlight of the week, was led by Mr. Sushil Parab from the Sub-district Hospital, Kankavli. As the chief speaker, Mr. Parab provided comprehensive insights into the medical, social, and psychological facets of HIV/AIDS. His expertise helped demystify the disease, offering participants a deeper understanding of how to prevent transmission and support those affected.

Principal Dr. A. D. Kamble chaired the session, emphasizing the importance of community involvement in combating the spread of HIV/AIDS. The session was further graced by the presence of NSS District Coordinator Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, whose support and guidance were instrumental in the program's success.

The event witnessed active participation from both teaching and non-teaching staff, reflecting the college community's commitment to health education and social responsibility. A total of 77 participants attended the sessions, benefiting significantly from the knowledge and resources shared. The number of beneficiaries averaged beyond the attendees, as participants were encouraged to disseminate the information within their communities.

Overall, the HIV-AIDS Week organized by the NSS Department was a resounding success, fostering awareness and empowering individuals to contribute to the fight against HIV/AIDS.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized an HIV-AIDS Testing Camp under the theme of raising awareness and promoting health among the community. The event was held under the auspices of Honorable Shri. Sushil Parab and Honorable Shrimati Kirti Parab, esteemed HIV-AIDS testers known for their dedication to public health initiatives.

The camp was graced by the esteemed presence of Honorable Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator (University of Mumbai), and Honorable Dr. A. D. Kamble, the Principal of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan. Their attendance underscored the significance of the event in the broader context of public health awareness and community engagement.

A total of 93 participants availed themselves of the testing facilities provided at the camp. The turnout reflected the community's proactive approach towards health and well-being. Not only did the event provide an opportunity for individuals to get tested for HIV-AIDS, but it also served as a platform for spreading awareness about prevention, treatment, and destigmatization of the disease.

The success of the HIV-AIDS Testing Camp highlights the effectiveness of collaborative efforts between educational institutions, governmental bodies, and community leaders in addressing public health challenges. Such initiatives not only contribute to individual well-being but also foster a culture of health consciousness and social responsibility within the community.

the meticulous filling of soil around newly planted trees to ensure their proper growth and sustainability. This initiative aimed to beautify the college campus and promote environmental awareness among students and staff.

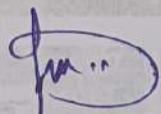

The event was graced by the presence of our esteemed Principal, [Principal's Name], who actively participated in the activity, emphasizing the importance of environmental stewardship. The session was chaired by [Chairperson's Name] and featured a keynote address by the chief speaker, [Chief Speaker's Name], who highlighted the significance of collective efforts in environmental conservation.

A total of 46 participants, including both teaching and non-teaching staff, contributed to the successful execution of the activity. The hands-on involvement in soil management and plant care provided a valuable learning experience for all attendees, fostering a sense of responsibility towards the environment.

Refreshments were distributed to all participants, adding to the camaraderie and team spirit of the event. The presence of teaching and non-teaching staff further underscored the college's commitment to community involvement and sustainable practices.

The "Mati-bharani" activity not only beautified the college campus but also benefited [number of beneficiaries] individuals by instilling a deeper appreciation for nature and community service.

A/p. Kharepatan, Tal. Kankavli, Dist. Sindhudurg

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce and Science College, Kharepatan organized a Swachh Bharat Abhiyan on the college campus. This initiative aimed to promote cleanliness and sanitation within the college premises.

The activity was conducted with the primary objective of enhancing the cleanliness of the college. Participants focused on cleaning various areas, including the entire campus, the backside of the main gate, and the ground near the main gate.

The event witnessed active participation from the Principal, Dr. A. D. Kamble, NSS Department Coordinator Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, as well as the teaching and non-teaching staff. A total of 52 participants were involved in this cleanliness drive.

The efforts contributed to a cleaner and more hygienic environment within the college, aligning with the goals of the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan. The presence of key personnel highlighted the importance of the initiative and demonstrated a collective commitment towards maintaining cleanliness and fostering a sense of responsibility among the college community.

Overall, the activity was successful in reinforcing the importance of cleanliness and involved a significant number of participants, making a positive impact on the college environment.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a blood donation camp to support local healthcare and promote community well-being. The event took place at the college campus and witnessed enthusiastic participation from students and staff.

Prof. Dr. Atmaram Kamble, President of Chaitanya Foundation, Kharepatan, along with medical officers from Civil Hospital Sindhudurg, graced the occasion, offering their best wishes and encouragement to the donors. The camp began with a thorough health check-up for potential donors. A total of 32 individuals underwent health screening, 37 had their hemoglobin levels checked, and 36 received blood group testing to ensure eligibility for donation.

The camp successfully collected 26 units of blood, contributing to the vital need for blood in medical emergencies. NSS volunteers played a crucial role in organizing the event, with 28 volunteers actively participating in various logistical and support activities. They helped manage the flow of participants, assisted in the health check-up process, and provided refreshments to donors.

The presence of Hon. Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator (University of Mumbai), Sindhudurg District, added significance to the event. His support and guidance motivated the volunteers and participants alike.

The blood donation camp exemplified the spirit of social responsibility and community service, reflecting the college's commitment to contributing positively to society. The event not only helped save lives but also fostered a sense of unity and purpose among students and

लोकमत न्यूज नेटवर्क
खारेपाटण : राष्ट्रीय सेवा योजना विभाग, मुंबई विद्यापीठ, मुंबई यांच्याकडून मिळालेल्या सुचनेनुसार जिल्ह्यातील खारेपाटण येथील कला, वाणिज्य आणि विज्ञान महाविद्यालयातील राष्ट्रीय सेवा योजना कक्ष व चैतन्य फाउंडेशन यांच्या संयुक्त विद्यमानाने रक्तदान शिबिराचे आयोजन केले होते. उद्योजक व आदर्श एज्युकेशन ट्रस्टचे अध्यक्ष मनोज गुळेकर यांच्या हस्ते करण्यात आले. रक्तदान हेच जीवनदान, रक्तदान हेच सर्वश्रेष्ठ दान असे समजले जाते. शिवाय रक्तदान म्हणजे प्राणदान असेही मानणे, वावगे ठरणार नाही याची प्रचिती सदर रक्तदान शिबिर यशस्वी करण्यासाठी सहभागी झालेल्या २६ रक्तदात्यांकडून मिळाली.

या अभिनव उपक्रमातून समाजाचे ऋण फेडण्यासाठी समाजातीलच नागरिकांकडून हा मदतीचा हात देऊ

खारेपाटण महाविद्यालयात रक्तदान शिबिराचे उद्घाटन उद्योजक मनोज गुळेकर यांच्या हस्ते झाले. यावेळी प्राचार्य डॉ. ए. डी. कांबळे, संचालक विजय देसाई, राजेश बारगे आदी उपस्थित होते. (छाया संतोष पाटणकर)

असल्याचे खारेपाटण पंचकोशी योजना कक्ष कार्यक्रम अधिकारी व शिक्षण प्रसारक मंडळ, खारेपाटणचे संचालक तया महाविद्यालयाचे प्राचार्य डॉ. आत्माराम कांबळे यांनी सांगितले.

रक्तदानाच्या मुख्य दिवशी अधिकाधिक रक्तदात्यांना सहभागी करून घेण्याच्या दृष्टीने गेले काही दिवस महाविद्यालयातील राष्ट्रीय सेवा

रक्तदान करता आले.

On February 19, 2021, Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, celebrated Shiva Jayanti with great enthusiasm. The festivities began at 11:30 AM in Kharepatan village, highlighting the cultural and historical significance of the day. The celebration featured a procession that was inaugurated by Principal Dr. A. D. Kamble. The procession, which included paying tributes and image worship, was a key highlight of the event. The college community and villagers participated actively in the ceremony, reflecting a strong sense of local tradition and reverence. As part of the celebration, the premises of Kharepatan Fort and Durgadevi Mandir were cleaned, underscoring the commitment to maintaining the area's historical and cultural sites. NSS DC Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, along with other prominent villagers, was present during the event, adding to the significance of the occasion. The program was well-received and successfully fostered a sense of community pride and involvement. The combined efforts of the college and village members made the celebration a memorable and impactful event.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce and Science College, Kharepatan organized a street-play themed "COVID-19 Awareness." The event aimed to enhance public understanding of COVID-19 safety measures, symptoms, and vaccination importance.

The program commenced with an address by the Chief Guest, the Sarpanch of Kharepatan Village. Principal Dr. A. D. Kamble presided over the event as the Chairperson, highlighting the importance of community engagement in combating the pandemic. The NSS District Coordinator, Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, along with other eminent village representatives, graced the occasion as Guests of Honour, contributing their support and insights on effective awareness strategies.

The street-play, performed by NSS volunteers, effectively illustrated key preventive measures against COVID-19. The performance aimed to educate and engage the local community through an interactive and informative format.

The event saw the active participation of the teaching and non-teaching staff of the college, reflecting a collective commitment to public health and safety. The street-play was well-received by the audience, who appreciated the informative approach and the engaging nature of the performance.

Overall, the initiative successfully raised awareness about COVID-19 within the community.

Distributed Sanitary pads

On March 3, 2021, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, in collaboration with Kharepatan Gram Panchayat and Maitriya Mahila Mandal Trust, Mumbai, organized a lecture on "The Impact of Hormonal Changes on Women's Health: Issues, Measures, and Care." The event took place at 11:00 AM and was attended by teaching and non-teaching staff.

The keynote speaker elaborated on the significant impact of hormonal changes on women's health, discussing various issues, measures, and care strategies. The lecture provided insights into managing hormonal imbalances and emphasized the importance of awareness and self-care.

The Chief Guest, Shrimati Dr. Vaishali Devajirao, Assistant Dean of KEM Hospital, Mumbai, addressed the gathering, highlighting the critical role of education in promoting women's health. Shri. Ramakant Raut, Sarpanch of Kharepatan Village, also graced the occasion with his presence.

Principal Dr. A. D. Kamble chaired the event, while the Guests of Honour included Dr. Latika Bandekar, Dr. Ujawala Yelkote, Dr. Rekha Khadye, NSS DC Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, and other eminent personalities from Kharepatan village. Their participation underscored the importance of the topic and its relevance to the community.

Sanitary pads were distributed to participants, promoting hygiene and health. The program concluded with the national anthem followed by refreshments for all attendees. The event

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce and Science College, Kharepatan organized a "Save Environment" event on March 11, 2021, at 10:30 AM. The event was held at Shri. Gagangiri Maharaj Math, Kelavali, with the theme focusing on environmental conservation.

The activities included a Swachhata drive at the Shri. Gagangiri Maharaj Math premises, notebook and cloth carry-bag distribution, and mask distribution. The Swachhata drive effectively cleaned the premises of the Math, promoting a cleaner environment.

As part of the event, 975 cloth carry-bags were distributed to 868 villagers of Kelavali. Additionally, 512 notebooks were given to 268 students across 12 schools. Furthermore, 623 masks were distributed to 545 people in Kelavali, enhancing public health safety.

The event was graced by Chief Guest Shri. Manohar Haryan, President of Shri. Gagangiri Maharaj Math. Principal Dr. A. D. Kamble chaired the event, with NSS DC Shri. Vaseem Sayyed and other village dignitaries as guests of honor. The presence of teaching and non-teaching staff from the college added to the event's significance.

The initiative successfully engaged the community in environmental and social welfare activities, showcasing the NSS Department's commitment to holistic development and

On 28/03/2021, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a COVID-19 awareness campaign through a street-play at Pombhurle village. The initiative aimed to educate the local community about the pandemic's preventive measures and health protocols.

The event was graced by NSS DC Shri. Vaseem Sayyed and Sarpanch Shri. Sadiquebhai Dongarkar, alongside other eminent personalities from the village. Their presence underscored the importance of the campaign and supported its message.

The street-play effectively conveyed crucial information about COVID-19, including symptoms, preventive measures, and the importance of vaccination. It engaged the audience with informative and visually impactful performances, making the message accessible and memorable.

This activity demonstrated the NSS Department's commitment to community service and public health awareness, leveraging local cultural forms to address pressing issues.

On April 2, 2021, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a Road Safety Awareness campaign. The event was held at 9:30 AM and aimed to promote road safety within the community. The program featured a street play, which was performed to effectively convey the importance of adhering to road safety norms.

The campaign was attended by notable figures from the local community, including Hon. Sarpanch Shri. Sadiquebhai Dongarkar, who graced the occasion as the Chief Guest. The event also saw the presence of eminent personalities from Pombhurle village, who were acknowledged as guests of honor. The involvement of these distinguished guests underscored the significance of the initiative and added credibility to the awareness drive.

Following the street play, refreshments were provided to all participants, fostering a sense of community and appreciation for their involvement in this vital cause. This event was a testament to the NSS Department's commitment to addressing crucial social issues and engaging with the local populace to drive meaningful change.

On April 2, 2021, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a notable activity under the theme "Save Paper - Notebooks Making and Distribution." The event, held at 9:30 AM, saw the distribution of 637 notebooks to 189 students across six schools. Hon. Sarpanch Shri. Sadiquebhai Dongarkara graced the occasion as the Chief Guest, while an eminent figure from Pombhurle village attended as the Guest of Honour. The event focused on promoting the importance of paper conservation and addressing the needs of students in rural areas. The initiative was well-received, with participants benefiting from the notebooks provided. Following the distribution, refreshments were served to all attendees, adding a touch of appreciation to the event. This activity not only supported students with essential educational resources but also highlighted the NSS Department's commitment to environmental sustainability and community service.

On April 2, 2021, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a significant environmental activity titled "SAVE ENVIRONMENT-ZERO PLASTIC USED" focusing on cloth carrybag making and distribution. The event took place at 9:30 AM, and its primary aim was to promote eco-friendly alternatives to plastic bags. The activity was inaugurated by Hon. Sarpanch Shri. Sadiquebhai Dongarkara, who graced the occasion as the Chief Guest. An eminent representative from Pombhurle village was also present as the Guest of Honour, adding prestige to the event. The program successfully distributed 417 notebooks to 214 villagers, supporting educational initiatives alongside environmental conservation. The cloth carrybags were crafted and distributed as part of the zero-plastic initiative, reinforcing the message of sustainability and reducing plastic waste. Following the event, refreshments were provided to all participants, ensuring a pleasant conclusion to the day's activities. This initiative not only fostered community engagement but also underscored the NSS's commitment to environmental stewardship and social responsibility.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a Swachh Bharat Abhiyan activity. The initiative aimed to promote cleanliness and hygiene in public spaces. The event took place in Pombhurle village, focusing on cleaning various public areas to enhance the local environment.

The activity commenced at 09:30 AM, with NSS volunteers actively participating in the cleaning process. The event, though not graced by any formal chief guest or chairperson, saw the presence of an eminent individual from Pombhurle village, who honored the occasion as a guest of honor. Their participation highlighted the importance of community involvement in such initiatives.

The volunteers engaged in thorough cleaning of public places, removing litter and waste to improve the sanitation of the village. This effort contributed significantly to the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan's objective of fostering cleaner and healthier communities.

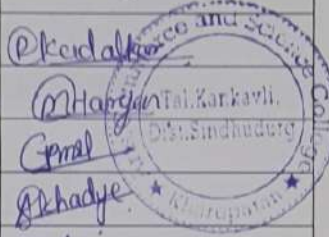

Following the completion of the cleaning activities, refreshments were provided to all participants as a token of appreciation for their dedicated efforts. This gesture not only acknowledged the hard work of the volunteers but also fostered a sense of community and cooperation among them.

Overall, the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan activity in Pombhurle village successfully underscored the importance of cleanliness and collective responsibility, reinforcing the NSS Department's commitment to environmental and community service.

On April 3, 2021, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a lecture themed "Beti Bachao - Beti Padhao." The lecture, titled "Aajchya Aadhunik Kalatil MI," was held at 11:30 AM and aimed to address contemporary issues related to women's education and empowerment. The event featured Prof. Rashmi R. Desai as the Chief Guest and NSS DC Shri. Vaseem Sayyed as the Guest of Honor. The discussion focused on the importance of educating and protecting the girl child, reflecting the core values of the Beti Bachao - Beti Padhao initiative.

The event was well-attended, with participants engaging actively in the discussion. The insights provided by Prof. Desai and Shri. Sayyed highlighted the critical need for societal change towards gender equality and education. Their addresses underscored the role of education in empowering women and fostering a more equitable society. Following the lecture, refreshments were served to all participants, providing an opportunity for informal discussions and networking. The event was successful in raising awareness and encouraging community

खडतर परिस्थितीतून मार्ग काढत उच्चशिक्ष- इतरांपेक्षा वेगळे अस्तित्व निर्माण करा:

देवगड, ३ एप्रिल (प्रतिनिधी): युवा कल्याण व क्रिडा मंत्रालय, भारत सरकार व राष्ट्रीय सेवा योजना कक्ष, मुंबई विद्यापीठ, मुंबई यांच्याकडून मिळालेल्या सूचनेनुसार जिल्ह्यातील खारेपाटण येथील कला, वाणिज्य आणि विज्ञान महाविद्यालयातील राष्ट्रीय सेवा योजना कक्षाद्वारे बेटी बचाव - बेटी पढाव संकल्पना राबवित शाली.

करा, असे प्रतिपादन प्रा. रमणी देसाई यांनी केले. आज समाजात सतत कमी होत जाणारी मुलींची संख्या ज्याला जबाबदार संकुचित विचारसरणी असून आपल्या भारतीय संस्कृतीला हादरवणारे ठरतेय. या घटनांमुळे संपूर्ण विश्वास आपल्या देशाची प्रतिमा डागाळली जाते आहे. हा एक गंभीर चिंतेचा विषय आहे. यावर उपाय आणि या समस्येचे निराकरण होणे अत्यंत आवश्यक आहे.

केवळ शिक्षणाने सुधारल्या जाऊ शकते असे म्हणत ते म्हणाले की, शिक्षणाकरीता प्रधानमंत्री नरेन्द्र मोदींनी २०१५ साली बेटी बचाओ बेटी पढाओ अभियानाला सुरुवात केली होती, जेणेकरून भारतीय समाजात महिलांची स्थिती बदलली जावी, त्यांना सन्मान मिळावा, पुरुषांवरोबरीचे अधिकार मिळावेत व त्यांना त्यांच्या जीवनाशी निगडित निर्णय स्वतः घेता यावे आणि देशाच्या विकासात यावं आणि देशाच्या विकासात

त्यांनी आपलं महत्वपूर्ण योगदान द्यावं. भारतीय समाजातील महिलांच्या स्थितीत पुर्वोपेक्षा बराच बदल झाला आहे. कित्येक क्षेत्रात विया पुरुषांच्या खांद्याला खांदा लावून प्रगती करतायेत, आपल्यातील प्रतिभेने सर्वांना अचंबीत करत आहे देशाचे नाव गवनि मोठे करतायेत. हे चित्र जरी सुखावह असलं तरी देखील मुलींची संख्या सतत कमी होत आहे. शिवाय बलात्कार, नका गैरेप, कन्या भ्रूण हत्या, हुंडाबळी

सारख्या आहेत. मुल शिखणा कार्यक्रम प्रचार खारेपाट मंडळ, खारेपाट डॉ. उ स्वाव नका कांबवे

On April 12, 2021, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan organized a significant COVID-19 awareness activity titled "Cloth Mask Distribution." The event took place at 11:30 AM with the aim of promoting health and safety in the community during the pandemic. Shri. Amitdada Manzarekar, the esteemed Sarpanch of Nadgive Village, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest, while NSS District Coordinator Shri. Vaseem Sayyed attended as a prominent guest.

The activity's primary objective was to distribute cloth masks to local residents, emphasizing the importance of wearing masks to prevent the spread of COVID-19. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from the college's NSS volunteers and community members. The distribution was conducted efficiently, ensuring that each household received adequate masks.

Though there were no designated Chair Person or additional Guests of Honor listed, the presence of key figures like Shri. Manzarekar and Shri. Sayyed highlighted the event's significance and reinforced the message of health awareness.

At the conclusion of the activity, refreshments were provided to all participants as a gesture of appreciation for their involvement and support. This initiative not only facilitated the distribution

विद्यापीठीय दत्तक गाव नडगिचे येथे मास्क, कापडी पिशवी वाटप

देवगड, १२ एप्रिल (प्रतिनिधी) - खारेपाटण महाविद्यालयातील राष्ट्रीय सेवा योजना कक्षातर्फे विद्यापीठ दत्तक गाव नडगिचे येथे मास्क, कापडी पिशवीचे वाटप करून एक हात समाजासाठी याची प्रचिती या कृत्यातून आधुनिक काळातही पावनाहून समजल्या जाणाऱ्या पिढीने दिली.

जगभरात कोरोना विषाणूचा (कोविड-१९) घोका दिवसेंदिवस वाढत असल्याने जिल्ह्यातही काळजी घेतली जात आहे. आपल्या जिल्ह्यातील वाढते कोरोना विषाणूग्रस्त रुग्णांची संख्या ही दुसऱ्या येणाऱ्या कोविड-१९ लाटेची पाऊल खुणा असून प्रत्येक व्यक्तीने खबरदारी घेत स्वताः बरोबर इतरांसाठी ही योद्धा होणे काळाची गरज असून, प्रत्येकाने

कोविड-१९ निहाय शासकीय नियमानुसार वर्तन करणे अनिवार्य व आवश्यक आहे, या निमित्ताने जनजागृती करत मुखपट्टी/मास्कचे वाटप करण्यात आले. महाविद्यालयाचे प्राचार्य डॉ. आत्माराम कांबळे यांनी प्रातिनिधिक स्वरूपात नडगिचे ग्रामचे सरपंच अमित मांजरेकर व नडगिचे ग्रामसेवक विकास वेळकर यांना मास्क व पिशवी देऊन या उपक्रमाचे उद्घाटन झाले.

त्यानंतर महाविद्यालयातील राष्ट्रीय सेवा योजना कक्ष स्वयंसेवकांनी नडगिचे ग्रामस्थानाही मास्कचे वाटप करण्यात आले. या अनुषंगाने मुंबई विद्यापीठ दत्तक ग्राम नडगिचे ग्रामस्थाना ३८० व मास्क ३७० कापडी पिशव्यांचे वाटप करण्यात आले. याप्रसंगी नडगिचे ग्रामचे सरपंच

On April 12, 2021, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized an impactful environmental conservation activity titled "Plastic Free India: Cloth Carry-Bags Distribution." The event, held at 11:30 AM, aimed to promote the reduction of plastic usage by distributing cloth carry-bags to local residents. Shri. Amitdada Manzarekar, the Sarpanch of Nadgive Village, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest. NSS DC Shri. Vaseem Sayyed played a significant role as the Chief Guest, while Prof. Dr. Atmaram D. Kamble was honored as a Guest of Honor.

The event was meticulously planned to foster community engagement and environmental awareness. It began with a warm welcome and introduction, followed by speeches highlighting the importance of reducing plastic waste and adopting sustainable alternatives. The distribution of cloth carry-bags was carried out, emphasizing the transition from single-use plastics to eco-friendly options. This initiative was part of a broader effort to promote a cleaner, greener environment in alignment with national environmental goals.

After the completion of the program, refreshments were provided to all participants, creating an opportunity for further discussion and community interaction. The event underscored the collective effort required to address environmental issues and the role of educational institutions in driving positive change.

On April 20, 2021, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce and Science College, Kharepatan, organized an impactful activity under the theme "Environment Conservation: Plastic Free India - Cloth Carry-bags Distribution." The initiative aimed to promote sustainable practices and reduce plastic waste by distributing cloth carry-bags to local residents. A total of 1490 bags were distributed to 1452 peoples, emphasizing the college's commitment to environmental conservation.

The event was graced by NSS DC Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, who served as the Chief Guest, and Prof. Dr. Atmaram D. Kamble, a distinguished Guest of Honor. The presence of these esteemed guests highlighted the importance of the activity and underscored the collaborative effort in fostering environmental awareness. The distribution activity commenced at 11:30 AM, and the presence of local dignitaries and community members contributed to the event's success.

Following the distribution, refreshments were provided to all participants, creating an opportunity for further engagement and discussion about environmental issues. This activity not only facilitated the reduction of plastic usage but also fostered a sense of community responsibility towards a greener future. The successful execution of this initiative reflects the NSS Department's dedication to making a tangible impact on environmental conservation and encourages continued efforts in promoting sustainable practices.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce and Science College, Kharepatan, successfully organized a COVID-19 Awareness activity focused on cloth mask distribution from April 17 to April 20, 2021. This initiative aimed to support public health efforts during the pandemic by distributing masks to enhance safety and awareness. During the event, a total of 968 cloth masks were distributed to 736 individuals in the community.

The activity was graced by distinguished guests, including NSS District Coordinator (DC) Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, who served as the Chief Guest. Prof. Dr. Atmaram D. Kamble was present as one of the Guest of Honors. The event was held daily at 11:30 AM and witnessed significant participation from both students and local residents. The presence of these esteemed guests added value and recognition to the initiative, underscoring the commitment of the college towards community welfare.

Following the mask distribution, refreshments were provided to all participants, ensuring a pleasant conclusion to the event. This activity not only contributed to the preventive measures against COVID-19 but also highlighted the college's proactive role in community service and health promotion. The success of this initiative demonstrates the effective engagement of the NSS Department in addressing urgent public health needs through collaborative efforts and organized outreach.
