Blood Donation Camp Report

On 22nd July 2021, a Blood Donation Camp was successfully organized in collaboration with the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of this college and Lokmat - Sindhudurg. The camp was inaugurated by the esteemed Principal Prof. Dr. Atmaram Kamble, in the presence of several eminent personalities from the village and the hospital community.

The inauguration ceremony was marked by encouraging speeches from Principal Prof. Dr. Atmaram Kamble and the medical officers from SSPM Medical College and Lifetime Hospital Blood Bank, Kudal, Sindhudurg. They expressed their gratitude and extended best wishes to all the donors, emphasizing the critical importance of blood donation in saving lives.

The camp saw a commendable turnout from eligible students and villagers, who participated enthusiastically. Prior to donating blood, participants underwent a series of health checks to ensure their eligibility. A total of 33 individuals received comprehensive health check-ups, 42 had their hemoglobin levels checked, and 38 had their blood groups determined. Despite the rigorous screening process, 19 units of blood were successfully collected during the camp. This valuable contribution will support the local blood bank and assist in medical emergencies within the community.

Post-donation, all participants were provided with refreshments to help them recover and replenish their energy levels. The event was not only a step towards promoting health and community service but also fostered a sense of unity and responsibility among the students and local residents.

The NSS Department of [College Name] and Lokmat - Sindhudurg extend their heartfelt thanks to all the volunteers, donors, and medical staff who made this event a success. Their collective efforts have contributed significantly to the well-being of the community.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department at Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a significant event titled "Vanmahotsa Saptah" with the aim of promoting environmental consciousness and sustainable living. The event, inaugurated by Principal Hon. Dr. A. D. Kamble, marked a pivotal moment in fostering a greener community.

Under the overarching theme of environmental conservation, the event witnessed the enthusiastic participation of 24 individuals, including students, faculty, and members of the local community. Notable figures such as Hon. Shri Vaseem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator (University of Mumbai), Sindhudurg District, graced the occasion alongside villagers and dignitaries from Kharepatan and Nadgive.

A key highlight of the event was the planting of 250 saplings, including mango, teak, amla, and kokam trees. This act symbolized a collective commitment to nurturing the environment and preserving biodiversity. Each sapling planted served as a tangible step towards mitigating environmental degradation and enhancing green cover in the region.

Moreover, the event aimed to create long-lasting impacts by engaging participants in discussions and workshops on sustainable practices and the importance of environmental stewardship. Through these educational initiatives, the Vanmahotsa Saptah sought to inspire a generation of environmentally conscious citizens who actively contribute to the preservation of nature.

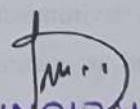

Overall, the Vanmahotsa Saptah was a resounding success, fostering a sense of community spirit and environmental responsibility among participants. As the saplings take root and flourish, they stand as enduring symbols of our collective commitment to safeguarding the planet for future generations.

The activity witnessed active participation from our dedicated students, who played a pivotal role in the distribution process. The event was graced by the presence of Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator of UoM for Sindhudurg District, along with the Vilavade Grampanchayat Sarpanch and its members. The villagers and eminent personalities of Vilavade also marked their presence, adding value and support to the cause.

A total of 38 relief kits were distributed to the beneficiaries. Each kit, valued between Rs. 1800 to Rs. 2000, contained sufficient grains and basic commodities to sustain a family for approximately 15 to 20 days. This thoughtful arrangement ensured that the immediate nutritional needs of the flood-affected families were adequately met.

The relief activity not only provided essential supplies to those in dire need but also fostered a spirit of service and empathy among the participating students. To keep the volunteers energized and motivated, refreshments were provided during the mid-point of the activity, ensuring they could perform their duties effectively.

The event, held at Vilavade in Banda, Sindhudurg, was a testament to the collective effort of the NSS Department, the local community, and the students. It underscored the importance of solidarity and timely intervention in disaster relief efforts.

Overall, the Disaster Relief activity was a commendable initiative that highlighted the NSS Department's commitment to community welfare and the enthusiastic participation of our students in meaningful social service.

The NSS Department of our college organized a significant relief effort under the theme "Disaster Relief: Support for the Flood-Affected Peoples" in Pombhurle, Sindhudurg. The event saw active participation from students and key community figures. Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator of University of Mumbai (Sindhudurg District), and members of Pombhurle Grampanchayat including Sarpanch Hon. Shri Sadiquebhai Dongarkar were present, alongside villagers and prominent local figures like Shrimati Rashmi Desai, Shrimati Mangal Parab, and Shrimati Kavita Amkar. The primary objective was to aid those affected by recent floods, with a focus on distributing relief kits. A total of 21 kits were distributed, each containing essential commodities estimated to sustain a family for 15-20 days. The approximate cost per kit ranged from Rs. 1800 to Rs. 2000. This initiative aimed not only to provide immediate relief but also to ensure sustenance during the ongoing recovery period. In addition to relief distribution, refreshments were provided to the NSS volunteers as they tirelessly engaged in the relief activities. The venue for this commendable effort was Pombhurle, a village adopted by the University as part of its community outreach program. The event highlighted the NSS Department's commitment to social responsibility and community welfare. It brought together stakeholders from various sectors to collectively support and uplift the flood-affected population of Pombhurle. Such initiatives underscore the pivotal role educational institutions play in fostering community resilience and solidarity during times of adversity.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department at Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, orchestrated a remarkable event titled "Swachhata Pakhawada" on August 11, 2021. Aimed at enhancing the cleanliness and hygiene standards of the college campus, the initiative drew the participation of 43 enthusiastic NSS volunteers.

Under the gracious presence of Honorable Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS DC (University of Mumbai), Sindhudurg District, and the esteemed guidance of Dr. A. D. Kamble, the Principal, the event unfolded with a fervent spirit of community service. Volunteers, armed with brooms and bins, embarked on a mission to transform their campus into a pristine sanctuary of learning and growth.

The activity encapsulated the essence of collective responsibility towards environmental stewardship. Volunteers meticulously combed through the nooks and crannies of the college premises, diligently clearing litter and debris. Their efforts extended beyond mere cleanliness; they symbolized a collective commitment to nurturing an environment conducive to holistic education and well-being.

As the day progressed, the campus witnessed a remarkable metamorphosis, reflecting the unwavering dedication of the NSS volunteers. The impact of their endeavors reverberated not only within the college community but also in the broader societal context, inspiring a culture of cleanliness and civic consciousness.

In essence, the Swachhata Pakhawada served as a testament to the transformative power of collective action. It underscored the pivotal role of educational institutions in fostering a culture of environmental responsibility and community engagement. Through initiatives like these, Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, continues to be a beacon of positive change, instilling values of service and stewardship in the hearts of its students and stakeholders alike.

Organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, a cleanliness drive under the banner of the Clean India Campaign was conducted from the 1st to the 31st of October in Pombhurle village. The theme revolved around the cleanliness of public places, aiming to instill a sense of responsibility towards the environment among the youth.

A total of 26 enthusiastic NSS volunteers actively participated in the drive, demonstrating their commitment to community service and environmental conservation. Led by the NSS Department, the volunteers meticulously cleaned various public places within Pombhurle village, contributing to the beautification and sanitation of the area.

The event was graced by the presence of Honorable Shri. Vassem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator (University of Mumbai), Sindhudurg District. His presence not only motivated the volunteers but also highlighted the significance of such initiatives in fostering a cleaner and healthier environment for all.

The successful execution of the cleanliness drive underscores the dedication of the NSS Department and its volunteers towards promoting civic responsibility and environmental stewardship. Such initiatives not only enhance the aesthetic appeal of public spaces but also play a vital role in promoting community health and well-being.

In conclusion, the cleanliness drive in Pombhurle village stands as a testament to the collective efforts of the NSS Department, volunteers, and community members in making a tangible difference in their surroundings. It serves as a reminder of the importance of active participation and collaboration in creating a cleaner and greener tomorrow.

In a concerted effort to disseminate crucial information regarding COVID-19, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department at Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a noteworthy activity in collaboration with the local community. Under the theme of "COVI-19 Awareness," a dynamic street play was performed at Pombhurle, drawing attention to vital health guidelines amidst the pandemic. The event witnessed the active participation of 20 dedicated NSS volunteers, who passionately conveyed the message of COVID-19 prevention through their engaging performances. The impact of their efforts was far-reaching, with a considerable number of beneficiaries from the village and its vicinity being reached and educated about the importance of adhering to safety protocols. The presence of esteemed dignitaries lent further credibility to the event. Honorable Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator (University of Mumbai), Sindhudurg District, along with the respected Sarpanch of Pombhurle, Shri. Sadiquebhai Dongarkar, graced the occasion. Additionally, prominent members of the village community added to the significance of the gathering. Through the medium of street plays, the participants effectively communicated crucial information about mask-wearing, hand hygiene, and social distancing, empowering the community to make informed decisions in safeguarding their health. The event exemplified the spirit of community engagement and collective responsibility in the fight against COVID-19. In conclusion, the COVI-19 awareness activity organized by the NSS Department at Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, stood as a testament to the power of collaboration and grassroots initiatives in combating the pandemic. It served as a beacon of hope and enlightenment in challenging times, inspiring individuals to take proactive measures for the well-being of themselves and their communities.

Commemorative Event Report: Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri Birth Anniversaries

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department at Arts, Commerce and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a thoughtful activity to honor the birth anniversaries of Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri. The event, attended by 25 participants and various teaching and non-teaching staff members, was held under the esteemed chairmanship of Principal Hon. Dr. Atmaram Deu Kamble.

The theme centered on promoting values cherished by the two iconic leaders. Activities included image worship and flower showering, symbolizing reverence and purity. Participants enthusiastically recited oaths of non-violence and cleanliness, emphasizing the enduring principles advocated by Gandhi and Shastri.

A significant highlight was the initiative towards a plastic-free campus, exemplified by a collective plastic pickup effort. Additionally, awareness was spread through a street play presentation in Kharepatan, engaging the local community and fostering a sense of environmental responsibility.

The presence of esteemed guests added depth to the occasion. Hon. Shri Vaseem Sayyed, NSS DC (University of Mumbai), Sindhudurg District, graced the event, offering valuable insights and encouragement.

While the number of direct beneficiaries was not specified, the impact extended beyond mere participation, resonating with the ethos of service and civic responsibility.

In conclusion, the event served as a poignant tribute to the enduring legacies of Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri, inspiring participants and stakeholders to embody their timeless ideals in everyday life.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, orchestrated a transformative Clean India Campaign in Kelavali village. On the agenda were extensive cleanliness drives across public spaces, coupled with awareness initiatives. The event commenced with the solemn recitation of the Swachhata Oath, reinforcing the commitment to cleanliness among participants.

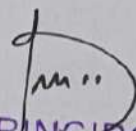

Nineteen enthusiastic NSS volunteers actively engaged in the cleanup efforts, demonstrating their dedication to the cause. The village of Kelavali, adopted by the college, served as the focal point for this commendable endeavor.

Distinguished personalities graced the occasion, infusing it with their expertise and insights. Honorable Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator (University of Mumbai) for Sindhudurg District, provided invaluable guidance and motivation. Shri. Balwant Hulgunde, Extension Officer of Rajapur Panchayat Samiti, Rajapur, delivered a compelling address on the significance of hygiene, enriching the event with his knowledge.

Shrimati Vandana Talawadekar, Gram Vikas Adhikari of Kelavali, alongside Prof. (Dr.) Vandana Shinde, Shrimati Rashmi Desai, Shrimati Madhavi Panchal, and Shri. Sandip Haryan, eminent personalities of the village, lent their unwavering support to the cause.

The campaign incorporated diverse approaches to raise awareness, including impactful street plays that captivated audiences and disseminated crucial messages on cleanliness and sanitation.

In conclusion, the Clean India Campaign in Kelavali village exemplified collaborative efforts towards fostering a cleaner, healthier environment. Such initiatives not only enhance public spaces but also instill a sense of responsibility and civic pride among communities.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a significant activity centered around the theme of Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, specifically targeting the reduction of plastic waste and the promotion of sustainability. The initiative focused on the creation and distribution of cloth carry bags as an alternative to plastic, with the aim of encouraging eco-friendly practices among villagers in Kelavali village.

The primary objectives of the activity were to reduce plastic pollution, promote environmental sustainability, and raise awareness about the benefits of using cloth carry bags. By involving the local community in the production and distribution process, the initiative also sought to highlight the potential for cloth bag-making to serve as a source of livelihood.

Under the guidance of Hon. NSS DC Shri. Vaseem Sayyed and Shrimati Vandana, Gram Vikas Adhikari of Kelavali, along with other village dignitaries, 19 enthusiastic NSS volunteers actively participated in the event. A total of 425 cloth carry bags were distributed to 408 villagers, showcasing the widespread acceptance and demand for eco-friendly alternatives.

Beyond the immediate impact of reducing plastic waste, the initiative aimed to instill a lasting commitment to sustainable practices within the community. By providing refreshments to participating students and engaging in dialogue with villagers, the event fostered a sense of collective responsibility towards environmental stewardship.

Looking ahead, the success of this initiative underscores the potential for similar grassroots efforts to drive positive change at the local level. Through continued skill development and awareness-building activities, the widespread adoption of cloth carry bags can serve as a catalyst for broader shifts towards a cleaner, greener future.

मी स्त्री आहे, अबला आहे, हे केवळ अज्ञानामुळे समज दुर करण्यासाठी भारतीय संविधानाने दिलेले हक्क प्रत्येक स्त्रीने जाणून घेणे आवश्यक असून ते जाणून घ्या, असे आवाहन स्वयंसेवकांकडून करण्यात आले. भारतीय संविधानाने व संसदेने देशातील प्रत्येक महिलेला सबला बनवण्यासाठी काही कायदे बनवलेले आहेत. दुर्दैवाने, या कायद्यांची माहिती प्रत्येक महिलेला असेलच असे नाही. सामाजिक असमानता, कौटुंबिक

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department at Arts, Commerce and Science College, Kharepatan, organized an impactful activity centered around the theme of Women's Rights. On the 13th of October 2021, 25 NSS volunteers participated enthusiastically in a street-play held in Kharepatan. This initiative aimed to raise awareness about the importance of women's rights and gender equality within the community. The street-play, a dynamic and engaging form of communication, was chosen to effectively convey the message to a wider audience. It depicted various scenarios highlighting the challenges faced by women in society and the importance of empowering them to claim their rights. The performance resonated with both the onlookers and the participants, sparking discussions and reflections on the topic. The event was graced by the presence of Honorable Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator (University of Mumbai), Sindhudurg District, whose support and encouragement further fueled the enthusiasm of the volunteers. Teaching and non-teaching staff from the college also attended the event, demonstrating their solidarity with the cause. While the exact number of beneficiaries couldn't be specified, the impact of the street-play extended beyond mere numbers. It ignited a sense of responsibility and advocacy among the participants, inspiring them to continue their efforts in promoting gender equality and women's rights in society.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, successfully organized a Swachhata (Clean India Campaign) activity in Chinchavali. This initiative aimed to promote cleanliness and environmental sustainability among the community.

A total of 27 enthusiastic NSS volunteers participated in this event, demonstrating remarkable dedication and teamwork. The volunteers engaged in various activities, including cleaning public spaces, spreading awareness about waste management, and encouraging local residents to maintain cleanliness in their surroundings. The event was graced by the presence of the Deputy Sarpanch of Chinchavali Village, Shri. Anil Pednekar, whose support and encouragement significantly motivated the participants. Additionally, the NSS District Coordinator, Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, attended the event, providing valuable guidance and emphasizing the importance of such initiatives in building a cleaner and healthier nation.

The Clean India Campaign activity not only enhanced the aesthetic appeal of Chinchavali but also instilled a sense of responsibility and civic pride among the volunteers and villagers. The NSS Department plans to continue such initiatives to contribute to the Swachh Bharat mission and inspire more individuals to participate in maintaining cleanliness in their communities.

Clean India Campaign Street-play and Swachhata Drive in Nadgive Village

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a Clean India Campaign themed street-play and Swachhata Drive in Nadgive Village, the university adopted village. The event aimed to raise awareness about cleanliness and hygiene practices among the villagers and promote active participation in keeping public places clean.

The activity took place in Nadgive Village, with 26 enthusiastic NSS volunteers actively participating. Honorable Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator (University of Mumbai) for Sindhudurg District, graced the event with his presence, adding significance and encouragement to the initiative.

The street-play, centered around the Clean India Campaign theme, effectively conveyed the importance of cleanliness and proper waste disposal methods to the audience. It engaged the villagers and conveyed the message in an entertaining and impactful manner.

Following the street-play, the Swachhata Drive was conducted, wherein NSS volunteers, along with villagers, actively cleaned public places in Nadgive Village. The drive not only contributed to the immediate improvement of cleanliness but also instilled a sense of responsibility and ownership of public spaces among the villagers.

The event concluded on a positive note, with participants committed to continuing their efforts towards maintaining cleanliness in the village. The presence of Honorable Shri. Vaseem Sayyed further motivated the volunteers and villagers to actively participate in such initiatives for a cleaner and healthier environment.

In summary, the Clean India Campaign themed street-play and Swachhata Drive in Nadgive Village, organized by the NSS Department, was a successful initiative in spreading awareness and fostering community participation in cleanliness efforts.

PRINCIPAL

Arts, Commerce & Science College, Kharepatan,
A.P. Kharepatan, Tal. Kankavli, Dist. Sindhudurg,

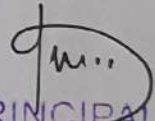

On October 27, 2021, a significant COVID-19 vaccination camp was held at Shri Chandrakant Parisa Raibagkar Hall, ACS College Kharepatan. This event, themed "COVID-19: Mission Yuva Swasthya," was a collaborative effort between the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, and Kharepatan Primary Health Centre (PHC). The primary objective was to enhance community health by administering COVID-19 vaccines to the local population.

The inauguration of the camp was presided over by Hon. Principal Dr. A. D. Kamble. The event saw active participation and support from various dignitaries, including Hon. Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator (University of Mumbai), Sindhudurg District, and the Hon. Sarpanch of Kharepatan. These prominent figures, along with other village eminents, underscored the community's commitment to fighting the pandemic.

The Head of Kharepatan PHC, Hon. Shrimati Priyanka Pednekar, along with her dedicated team, efficiently managed the vaccination process. Their tireless efforts ensured the smooth administration of vaccines to all attendees. The camp witnessed the participation of 44 NSS volunteers, who played a crucial role in organizing and assisting throughout the event.

A total of 62 beneficiaries received their COVID-19 vaccinations during the camp. The active involvement of NSS volunteers and the effective coordination between ACS College and Kharepatan PHC exemplified the power of community collaboration in tackling public health challenges.

Overall, the COVID-19 Vaccination Camp at Kharepatan was a resounding success, demonstrating the importance of collective action and community service in overcoming the ongoing pandemic. The event not only promoted health and safety but also fostered a spirit of unity and responsibility among the villagers.

On 04/12/2021, the National Service Scheme Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, in collaboration with Kharepatan Gram Panchayat, organized a Health Checking Camp under the theme "Health is Wealth." The event aimed to promote health awareness and provide essential medical services to the community.

The highlight of the event was the felicitation of Dr. Priyanka Vadam-Pedenekar, Head of Kharepatan Primary Health Center (PHC), by Honorable Sarpanch Shri Ramakant Raut, acknowledging her significant contributions to healthcare in Kharepatan. The entire team of Kharepatan PHC served as chief speakers, offering valuable insights into maintaining good health and preventing diseases.

The session was chaired by Honorable Principal Prof. Dr. Atmaram Kamble, who emphasized the importance of such initiatives in fostering a healthy society. Mr. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator (University of Mumbai), Sindhudurg District, graced the occasion, further endorsing the significance of community health programs.

The event witnessed the participation of teaching and non-teaching staff, underscoring the collective effort towards community welfare. A total of 155 beneficiaries availed themselves of the health services offered, including basic health check-ups and consultations.

Overall, the Health Checking Camp proved to be a fruitful endeavor, fostering community engagement and promoting the vital message that health is indeed wealth. Such initiatives play a crucial role in ensuring the well-being of society and fostering a culture of proactive healthcare awareness.

Organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department at the Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, the HIV-AIDS Awareness Rally aimed to educate and mobilize the community towards understanding and preventing the spread of HIV/AIDS.

The rally commenced with the inauguration by Principal Hon. Dr. A. D. Kamble, symbolizing institutional support and commitment to the cause. Starting from the college main gate, the rally traversed through Shivaji Peth to Kharepatan Bus Stand, engaging with the local populace and spreading awareness en route. It concluded at Kharepatan Sub-Station amidst fervent rally slogans, emphasizing the urgency and importance of the issue.

The event witnessed the esteemed presence of Hon. Shri Vaseem Sayyed, NSS DC (University of Mumbai), Sindhudurg District, along with prominent figures from the Kharepatan village. Additionally, both teaching and non-teaching staff actively participated, underscoring collective responsibility towards community welfare. While the exact number of participants wasn't specified, the rally's impact extended beyond mere attendance figures. Its reach and influence were reflected in the averaged number of beneficiaries, indicating the ripple effect of awareness spread during the event.

The HIV-AIDS Awareness Rally not only served as a platform for disseminating crucial information but also fostered a sense of solidarity and proactive engagement within the community. Such initiatives are vital in combating the stigma and misconceptions surrounding HIV/AIDS, ultimately contributing to a more informed and empowered society.

Organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of the Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, a cleanliness drive was conducted on the premises of Shri Datta Mandir as part of the Swacha Bharat Abhiyan initiative.

The theme-based cleaning activities aimed at enhancing the cleanliness of public spaces, aligning with the national mission for a cleaner India. A total of 36 NSS volunteers actively participated in the event, alongside both teaching and non-teaching staff members, showcasing their commitment to community service.

Spanning over 8 Gunthas of the temple premises, the enthusiastic volunteers diligently cleaned the area, contributing to the beautification and hygiene maintenance of the revered site. The event witnessed the presence and support of esteemed dignitaries including Hon. Sarpanch Shri. Sukant Varunkar, NSS DC Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, and Hon. Principal Dr. A. D. Kamble, who provided encouragement and guidance throughout the activity.

The participation of Hon. Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS DC (University of Mumbai), Sindhudurg District, added significance to the event, emphasizing the collaborative effort towards social welfare and environmental consciousness.

The successful execution of the cleanliness drive underscores the college's commitment to instilling civic responsibility among its students and fostering a culture of active participation in community initiatives. Such endeavors not only contribute to the cleanliness of public spaces but also nurture a sense of pride and ownership among citizens towards their surroundings.

The National Service Scheme Department of Arts, Commerce and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a cleanliness drive themed around "Cleanliness of Public Places" in line with the Swacha Bharat Abhiyan. The activity, held at the college campus's new building premises, aimed to instill a sense of responsibility towards cleanliness among students and staff.

A total of 36 NSS volunteers actively participated in the event, alongside teaching and non-teaching staff members. The volunteers engaged in various tasks including cutting grass, collecting bottles and plastics, and sorting glass and plastic materials. Notably, the collected grass was handed over to local farmers for agricultural use, while plastic and glass items were appropriately disposed of through coordination with the grampanchayat officer.

The presence of distinguished guests added significance to the event. Honorable NSS District Coordinator, Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, along with the esteemed Principal, Dr. A. D. Kamble, graced the occasion, emphasizing the importance of such initiatives in fostering community cleanliness.

This activity underscores the college's commitment to promoting civic responsibility and environmental stewardship among its students and staff. Such initiatives not only contribute to the beautification of public spaces but also serve as a reminder of the collective responsibility to maintain cleanliness for a healthier and more sustainable community.

Esteemed dignitaries, including College Principal Hon. Dr. A. D. Kamble, NSS District Coordinator Hon. Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, and former NSS volunteer Shri. Tejas Gurav, graced the event with their presence, adding to the significance of the occasion. Their presence inspired the students and highlighted the collective responsibility towards maintaining cleanliness.

The students, carrying banners and chanting slogans, created awareness among the local residents about the importance of maintaining cleanliness in their surroundings. The rally not only emphasized the significance of personal hygiene but also addressed community-level sanitation issues.

Following the rally, refreshments were provided to all participating students, serving as a gesture of appreciation for their efforts and enthusiasm. The event concluded on a high note, with students feeling a sense of accomplishment and responsibility towards contributing to a cleaner environment.

The Swachhata Awareness Rally by the NSS Department of Arts, Commerce and Science College, Kharepatan, was a successful initiative, fostering a sense of civic duty and promoting the message of cleanliness within the community.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, successfully organized a Swachh Bharat Abhiyan activity. The event took place in the adopted village of Kelavli, where the students enthusiastically participated in the cleanliness drive.

The esteemed presence of Hon. Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS DC from the University of Mumbai, Sindhudurg District, and Shri. Laxmikant Haryan significantly motivated the participants. The volunteers focused on cleaning various public places, including the premises of Gagangiri Maharaj Math and the Kelavli Canteen. This initiative was a part of the nationwide Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, aimed at promoting cleanliness and hygiene.

A total of 18 NSS volunteers actively engaged in the activity, demonstrating commendable dedication and teamwork. Their efforts not only contributed to a cleaner environment but also raised awareness about the importance of cleanliness among the local community.

After completing the cleanliness drive, refreshments were provided to all participating students, ensuring they were appreciated and rejuvenated after their hard work. The activity concluded successfully, leaving a positive impact on both the volunteers and the residents of Kelavli.

This initiative by the NSS Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, exemplifies the spirit of community service and the collective effort towards a cleaner India.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a street play focused on HIV-AIDS awareness. The event took place in the village of Kelavali and aimed to educate the local community about the prevention, treatment, and social implications of HIV-AIDS.

The awareness campaign was graced by the presence of Hon. Shri Vaseem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator (University of Mumbai), along with other eminent personalities of Kelavali village. Their participation underscored the importance of such educational initiatives and provided encouragement to both the performers and the audience.

A group of 19 enthusiastic NSS volunteers participated in the street play, creatively conveying crucial information about HIV-AIDS. Through their engaging performance, they addressed common myths and misconceptions surrounding the disease, emphasizing the significance of safe practices, regular health check-ups, and the need for compassionate treatment of those affected.

The street play successfully drew the attention of a substantial number of villagers, with an average attendance reflecting the community's interest in health-related issues. The interactive nature of the performance allowed the audience to ask questions and receive immediate, reliable answers, thereby enhancing their understanding of HIV-AIDS.

The event was held in an accessible and prominent area of Kelavali, ensuring maximum visibility and participation. By integrating education with entertainment, the NSS Department effectively utilized the street play format to foster a more informed and health-conscious community.

Overall, the HIV-AIDS theme-based street play was a resounding success, achieving its goal of raising awareness and providing valuable information to the residents of Kelavali. The positive response from the community highlights the impact and necessity of such awareness programs in rural areas.

Street-play

The NSS Cell of ACS College organized an extension activity on January 5, 2022, in Pombhurle village, Devgad Taluka, focused on raising awareness about addiction through a rally and street play. The event aimed to enlighten villagers about the perils of addiction and encourage them to embrace healthier lifestyle choices. Notable figures such as Shri. Sadiquebhai Dongarkar, the Sarpanch of Pombhurle, along with other respected community leaders, graced the occasion, demonstrating their solidarity with the cause.

A team of 16 dedicated participants meticulously organized and executed the rally and street play, effectively capturing the attention and engagement of the community. Their performances were not only impactful but also succeeded in conveying the message of collective responsibility in combating addiction.

In addition to the enlightening activities, the organizers ensured the comfort and well-being of the participants by providing refreshments. This gesture not only boosted the morale of the students but also fostered a sense of camaraderie among them.

Overall, the event orchestrated by the NSS Cell of ACS College served as a commendable effort in addressing the pressing issue of addiction in rural communities. By combining education with entertainment and community involvement, the initiative not only raised awareness but also sparked conversations and actions towards a healthier, addiction-free society.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a significant cleanliness drive aimed at enhancing the hygiene of public places. This activity, focused on the cleanliness of public spaces, was held in the town of Pombhurle and saw enthusiastic participation from students committed to community service.

A total of 16 NSS volunteers actively took part in the event, demonstrating commendable dedication and teamwork. Their efforts were instrumental in cleaning various public areas within Pombhurle, contributing to a healthier and more pleasant environment for the local residents.

The event was graced by the esteemed presence of Hon. Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator (DC) for Sindhudurg District, University of Mumbai. His presence not only motivated the volunteers but also highlighted the importance of maintaining public hygiene and the role of youth in community development.

During the activity, the volunteers engaged in cleaning streets, parks, and other communal areas, ensuring that these spaces were free from litter and debris. This initiative not only improved the physical appearance of Pombhurle but also raised awareness among the local community about the importance of cleanliness and environmental responsibility.

The NSS volunteers' dedication to the cause was evident in their meticulous work and the positive feedback from the community. The event successfully showcased the impact of collective effort in addressing public health and environmental issues, setting a commendable example for others to follow.

In conclusion, the cleanliness drive organized by the NSS Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, under the theme of public place cleanliness, was a resounding success. It underscored the crucial role of student volunteers in societal well-being and emphasized the significance of maintaining clean and hygienic public spaces.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a vibrant event commemorating National Voter Day on January 25th. The focal point of the activity was an awareness rally aimed at fostering civic engagement and voter education within the community. The rally, which saw the participation of 45 enthusiastic NSS volunteers, was inaugurated by the esteemed Principal, Dr. A. D. Kamble, adding a sense of official endorsement to the initiative.

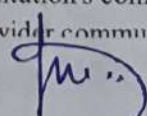

The rally commenced from the college's main gate and traversed through significant locales including Kharepatan Busstand and Shivaji Peth before culminating at the college playground. This strategic route ensured maximum visibility and engagement with the local populace, thereby amplifying the impact of the awareness campaign.

Notable dignitaries such as Honorable Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator (University of Mumbai), Sindhudurg District, alongside Honorable Principal Dr. A. D. Kamble graced the occasion with their presence. Their participation underscored the importance of voter awareness initiatives in nurturing an informed and participatory democracy.

The event's success can be measured not only by the number of participants but also by its resonance within the community. Through this initiative, the NSS Department effectively engaged with beneficiaries, raising awareness about the significance of exercising one's democratic right to vote. By fostering a culture of active citizenship, the event contributed towards building a stronger, more inclusive democracy at the grassroots level.

In conclusion, the National Voter Day activity organized by the NSS Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, stands as a testament to the institution's commitment to promoting civic responsibility and democratic values among the youth and wider community.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a vibrant Republic Day Celebration on January 26, 2022. The event, held at Kharepatan, was marked by patriotic fervor and community engagement, with a series of activities designed to honor the nation's democratic principles and historical legacy.

The celebration commenced with a flag hoisting ceremony, a traditional act symbolizing national pride and unity. Following this, a rally was inaugurated by the esteemed President of KPSP Mandal, Kharepatan, Shri. Pravin Lokare. The rally saw enthusiastic participation from various segments of the community, including villagers, eminent personalities, and the teaching and non-teaching staff of the college.

A highlight of the event was the felicitation of ex-police officers and freedom fighters, recognizing their invaluable contributions to the country's freedom struggle and ongoing peacekeeping efforts. This act of honoring the nation's unsung heroes added a poignant touch to the celebrations, underscoring the importance of remembering and appreciating those who have served the nation selflessly.

The event was graced by the presence of distinguished guests, including Hon. Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS DC (University of Mumbai), Sindhudurg District, Dr. Vandana Shinde-Vhatkar, and Shrimati Rashmi Desai. Their attendance lent an air of significance and inspiration to the proceedings, encouraging the participants to imbibe the values of service and patriotism.

The celebration saw the active participation of 118 NSS volunteers, whose enthusiasm and dedication were instrumental in the event's success. The number of beneficiaries of the event was averaged, indicating a wide-reaching impact on the local community. The Republic Day Celebration by the NSS Department at Kharepatan was not only a tribute to India's republic but also a reaffirmation of the college's commitment to fostering community spirit and national pride.

As part of the Swacha Bharat Abhiyan initiative, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a theme-based cleaning activity at the university-adopted village, Nadgive. The event aimed to promote cleanliness and hygiene in public spaces, aligning with the national campaign's objectives.

A total of 16 dedicated NSS volunteers participated in this noble cause, demonstrating their commitment to community service and environmental conservation. The volunteers were joined by the teaching and non-teaching staff of the college, reflecting a collective effort towards a cleaner and healthier environment.

The presence of Hon. Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator from the University of Mumbai, Sindhudurg District, and Hon. Sarpanch of Nadgive Village, Shri. Amitdada Manzarekar, added significance to the event. Their support and encouragement greatly motivated the participants.

The cleaning activities focused on various public places within Nadgive, where volunteers worked diligently to remove litter and debris, ensuring a clean and pleasant environment for the villagers. This initiative not only enhanced the cleanliness of the area but also raised awareness among the local community about the importance of maintaining public hygiene.

Overall, the event was a resounding success, showcasing the active participation and collaboration of students, staff, and local authorities. It emphasized the importance of community involvement in achieving the goals of the Swacha Bharat Abhiyan and set a positive example for future initiatives.

On May 25, 2024, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a COVID-19 Awareness campaign in the village of Nadgive. The event focused on mask distribution and raising awareness about the ongoing pandemic through door-to-door visits. This initiative was part of a broader effort to enhance public health and safety amid the challenges posed by COVID-19.

Eighteen dedicated NSS volunteers actively participated in this campaign. Their efforts were directed towards educating the residents about the importance of wearing masks, maintaining social distancing, and following hygiene practices to curb the spread of the virus. The volunteers engaged with the community personally, ensuring that the information was effectively communicated and understood. This direct approach helped in addressing specific concerns and questions that the residents had regarding COVID-19 and its preventive measures.

The event was graced by the presence of Hon. Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, the NSS District Coordinator (DC) from the University of Mumbai, Sindhudurg District. His participation underscored the importance of the campaign and provided additional motivation for the volunteers. Shri. Vaseem Sayyed's involvement also highlighted the university's commitment to community service and public health initiatives.

A total of 102 beneficiaries received masks and valuable information through this campaign. The distribution of masks aimed at ensuring that every individual had access to basic protective gear, which is crucial in preventing the transmission of the virus. The awareness drive not only equipped the residents with the necessary tools to protect themselves but also fostered a sense of responsibility towards community health.

This successful event demonstrated the pivotal role of NSS in community engagement and public health promotion, reinforcing the significance of collective efforts in battling the pandemic.

मास्क, पिशव्यांचे केले वाटप

On 25th January, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of the Arts, Commerce, and Science College in Kharepatan organized a special event to celebrate National Voter Day. The event took place in Nadgive and featured a street play aimed at raising awareness about the importance of voting. The street play was designed to educate the local community on the significance of their participation in the electoral process, emphasizing the power of each vote in a democracy.

The event saw the participation of 16 dedicated NSS volunteers who actively engaged with the audience, ensuring that the message was clearly conveyed. Their performance was well-received and successfully highlighted the key points about voter awareness and responsibility.

Hon. Amitdada Manzarekar, the Sarpanch, graced the event with his presence, lending his support to this crucial cause. His involvement underscored the local leadership's commitment to encouraging a more informed and active electorate.

Furthermore, the event was honored by the presence of Hon. Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, the NSS District Coordinator (NSS DC) for the University of Mumbai, Sindhudurg District. His attendance added significance to the occasion, reinforcing the importance of NSS initiatives in fostering civic responsibility among the youth and the community.

The average number of beneficiaries from this event was significant, as it reached a broad section of the Nadgive community. By providing this educational and engaging experience, the NSS volunteers helped to ensure that more citizens understand their voting rights and duties.

The event, held on 4th February 2022, was a resounding success, reflecting the NSS Department's

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of the Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized an event to raise awareness about road safety during the National Road Safety Week from January 11th to 17th. The theme of the activity was to promote road safety through a rally and street-play, emphasizing the importance of responsible driving and pedestrian safety.

The rally, inaugurated by College Principal Hon. Dr. Atmaram D. Kamble, commenced with a slogan, echoing the message of caution and adherence to traffic rules. Led by enthusiastic participants, the rally traversed through the streets, engaging bystanders and motorists with informative placards and chants advocating for safer road practices. The event culminated at the Kharepatan Sub-station, where a street-play was performed to underscore the significance of road safety in a visually compelling manner.

The presence of Hon. Shri Vaseem Sayyed, NSS DC (University of Mumbai), Sindhudurg District, added prestige to the occasion, highlighting the commitment of the university towards community welfare initiatives. A total of 78 individuals actively participated in the event, demonstrating a collective resolve to address road safety challenges.

While the exact number of beneficiaries is yet to be ascertained, the event undoubtedly reached a diverse audience, fostering greater awareness and understanding of road safety principles. By leveraging the power of collective action and creative expression, the NSS Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, contributed significantly to promoting safer roads and reducing accidents in the community.

In conclusion, the event served as a commendable effort towards instilling a culture of responsible road

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, orchestrated a vibrant Swachhata Awareness Rally coupled with a comprehensive cleanliness drive targeting public places within Kharepatan. The event, held under the patronage of Principal Hon Dr. Atmaram D Kamble, commenced at the college main gate, symbolizing a unified commitment towards cleanliness and community welfare.

With spirited chants echoing through the streets, the rally, graced by the esteemed presence of Hon. Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS DC (University of Mumbai), and other dignitaries, including Kharepatan's village Sarpanch Shri. Ramakant Raut and Shrimati. Rutuja Karle, Grampanchayat Sadsya, set off a wave of enthusiasm among the participants and onlookers alike.

Thirty-one dedicated NSS volunteers actively engaged in the procession, underscoring the collective responsibility towards environmental stewardship. The culmination of the rally at the revered Kalbhairav Mandir premises marked the beginning of a transformative endeavor to cleanse and rejuvenate public spaces.

During the ensuing cleanliness drive, areas such as Kalbhairav Mandir and the bustling weekly market received meticulous attention, reflecting a harmonious blend of civic duty and social consciousness. The collaborative efforts of the NSS volunteers, local authorities, and community members exemplified a commendable synergy towards realizing the vision of a cleaner, healthier Kharepatan.

In essence, the Swachhata Awareness Rally and Cleanliness Drive epitomized the ethos of community-driven initiatives, serving as a catalyst for sustainable change and fostering a culture of cleanliness and civic pride in Kharepatan.

On November 26th, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, in collaboration with Jhunjhar Mitra Mandal, Kharepatan, organized a significant event to commemorate Constitution Day and Shiv Jayanti. The event was marked by a series of activities aimed at honoring these historical occasions.

The day commenced with a solemn homage-paying ceremony, where participants offered flowers and engaged in image worship of Maharaj, followed by a rally that symbolized unity and reverence. The rally, inaugurated by the esteemed College Principal, Hon. Dr. Atmaram D. Kamble, commenced with a soul-stirring solo rendition and proceeded from the main college gate to the

At the Kharepatan Fort, a poignant flag-hoisting ceremony took place, symbolizing the spirit of patriotism and respect for the nation's heritage. The event saw the gracious presence of Hon. Shri Vaseem Sayyed, NSS DC (University of Mumbai), Sindhudurg District, along with Directors of KPSP Mandal, Kharepatan, and enthusiastic participation from both teaching and non-teaching staff. The event boasted a participation of 41 individuals, who actively engaged in the activities organized throughout the day. While the exact number of beneficiaries cannot be quantified, the event undoubtedly served as an educational and inspirational platform, fostering a deeper understanding and appreciation of the significance of Constitution Day and Shiv Jayanti among participants and observers alike.

On February 19, 2022, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a significant event to commemorate Shiv Jayanti. The theme of the celebration revolved around promoting cleanliness and preserving the historical and cultural heritage of Kharepatan. The activities were centered at the Kharepatan Forte and the Durga Devi Mandir premises, two iconic landmarks in the region.

The event saw the enthusiastic participation of 21 NSS volunteers who dedicated their efforts to cleaning and maintaining these heritage sites. The volunteers' commitment to Swachhata (cleanliness) not only aimed at enhancing the aesthetic appeal of the sites but also at preserving them for future generations. The activity underscored the importance of environmental stewardship and community service among the youth.

Honorable Shri Vaseem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator (University of Mumbai) for Sindhudurg District, graced the event with his presence, lending his support and encouragement to the volunteers. Dr. Vandana Shinde-Vhatkar and Shrimati Rashmi Desai were also present, adding to the significance of the occasion. Their presence underscored the collaborative effort between educational institutions and local authorities in fostering a sense of responsibility and civic duty among students.

The initiative benefited an averaged number of local residents and visitors who frequent these historical sites. The volunteers' efforts were well-received by the community, highlighting the positive impact of such activities on local heritage conservation and community engagement.

The Shiv Jayanti celebration at Kharepatan was a successful event that combined the spirit of volunteerism with the celebration of a significant cultural milestone. It served as a reminder of the collective responsibility towards maintaining cleanliness and preserving historical monuments.

On the 10th of March 2022, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce and Science College, Kharepatan, orchestrated a momentous event, the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, at the historic locales of Kharepatan Forte and Durgadevi Mandir. The essence of the initiative aimed not only at the physical cleanliness of the premises but also at nurturing a sense of civic responsibility among its participants.

Under the auspices of Hon. Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator (University of Mumbai), Sindhudurg District, a cohort of 20 enthusiastic NSS volunteers convened to contribute their efforts towards the cause. This synergy between academia and community leadership was instrumental in fostering a spirit of collective action.

The event transcended mere cleanliness, serving as a platform for holistic community engagement. In the presence of both teaching and non-teaching staff, the volunteers worked tirelessly to tidy the revered sites, thereby enriching their connection to local heritage and instilling a profound sense of pride.

While the exact count of beneficiaries was challenging to ascertain, the impact of the initiative reverberated throughout the community, leaving an indelible mark on both the physical landscape and the collective consciousness. This event underscored the transformative power of grassroots initiatives in propelling societal progress.

In conclusion, the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan organized by the NSS Department stands as a testament to the college's commitment to social responsibility and community empowerment. Through collaborative efforts and unwavering dedication, the participants exemplified the ethos of service and heralded a brighter, cleaner future for Kharepatan and beyond.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a Shramdan activity focused on road repairing, specifically the road leading towards Dattmandir. This initiative was aimed at improving the accessibility and safety of the road, which is vital for the local community.

The event witnessed active participation from both NSS volunteers and local villagers, highlighting the spirit of community cooperation and social responsibility. The presence of Hon. Shri Vaseem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator for Sindhudurg District (University of Mumbai), added significant value and encouragement to the participants.

A total of 26 participants from the college took part in the road repairing activity. Their efforts were complemented by the enthusiastic involvement of the villagers, who were attracted by the initiative and decided to join hands with the volunteers. This collaborative effort not only expedited the road repairing process but also fostered a sense of unity and mutual support among the villagers and the volunteers.

The Shramdan activity had a considerable impact on the community. The repaired road towards Dattmandir is now safer and more convenient for travel, benefiting an averaged number of beneficiaries, which includes daily commuters, pilgrims, and local residents.

Overall, the Shramdan for road repairing was a successful endeavor, demonstrating the positive outcomes of collective effort and the importance of volunteerism in addressing local issues. The event not only improved infrastructure but also strengthened community bonds and promoted a

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, orchestrated a commendable initiative under the theme of Swachh Bharat Abhiyan. On the vibrant morning of April 19, 2022, 25 enthusiastic NSS volunteers embarked on a mission to enhance the cleanliness quotient of Nadgiv, a bustling locality in the vicinity.

The essence of Swachh Bharat Abhiyan was impeccably captured as the volunteers zealously engaged in sprucing up public spaces. With brooms, gloves, and a collective spirit, they meticulously cleaned the area, leaving behind a trail of freshness and rejuvenation. The significance of their endeavor was magnified by the presence of esteemed dignitary Hon. Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS DC (University of Mumbai), Sindhudurg District, whose guidance and encouragement added a layer of inspiration to the event.

The impact of the activity transcended mere physical cleanliness; it resonated deeply with the ethos of community service and civic responsibility. While the number of beneficiaries couldn't be quantified, the ripple effect of their efforts undoubtedly touched the hearts of all who inhabit or traverse through Nadgiv.

This endeavor exemplifies the unwavering commitment of NSS Department, Kharepatan, towards fostering a culture of cleanliness and social engagement. As the sun set on April 19, 2022, Nadgiv stood as a testament to the power of collective action in nurturing a cleaner, greener, and more harmonious society.
