In response to the Fit India initiative, the NSS/DLLE Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a series of health and fitness activities aimed at promoting physical well-being among students and the broader community. Given the constraints imposed by the COVID-19 pandemic, these activities were conducted individually, with participants engaging from their residences or home villages to ensure safety and compliance with health guidelines.

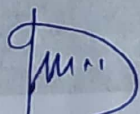

Participation in the Fit India activity was mandatory for all students, emphasizing the importance of maintaining physical fitness during challenging times. A total of 57 students actively participated in the initiative, demonstrating a strong commitment to health and wellness despite the pandemic's challenges.

Throughout the duration of the activity, students engaged in a variety of fitness exercises, including yoga, aerobics, running, and cycling. These activities were designed not only to enhance physical health but also to boost mental well-being and resilience during the pandemic. Participants reported increased levels of energy and overall improvement in their fitness levels, reflecting the positive impact of consistent exercise.

The Fit India activity also benefited numerous beneficiaries, including family members and community residents who were inspired to adopt healthier lifestyles. This ripple effect underscores the effectiveness of the program in fostering a culture of fitness and well-being in the community.

In conclusion, the Fit India activity successfully instilled a sense of health consciousness and encouraged ongoing fitness practices among students and the community, contributing significantly to individual and collective wellness.

On November 26, 2020, the NSS/DLLE Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a Shramdan activity within the college campus and the new building premises. This initiative aimed to foster community spirit and emphasize the importance of contributing to the upkeep and beautification of our educational environment. The event commenced at 10:15 AM and witnessed enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members.

The college principal, Dr. Atmaram D. Kamble, along with esteemed professors Prof. Prakash Sinde and Prof. Nayan Ugale, graced the occasion. The NSS Program Officer, Shri Vaseem Sayyed, led the activity, guiding the participants in various tasks such as cleaning, planting saplings, and arranging the new building's premises. The absence of a formal chief guest, chairperson, or guest of honor underscored the collective nature of the Shramdan, highlighting that every participant played a crucial role in the day's success.

Throughout the event, participants engaged in tasks that not only improved the physical surroundings but also fostered a sense of teamwork and responsibility. The activity served as a practical lesson in environmental stewardship, illustrating the impact of collaborative efforts in maintaining and enhancing communal spaces. It also provided an opportunity for students to apply classroom learning to real-world scenarios, reinforcing the college's commitment to holistic education.

Following the conclusion of the Shramdan activities, refreshments were provided to all participants, offering a moment for reflection and camaraderie. This gesture of appreciation acknowledged the hard work and dedication demonstrated by everyone involved.

In summary, the Shramdan activity organized by the NSS/DLLE Department was a resounding success, achieving its objectives of promoting cleanliness, environmental consciousness, and community collaboration. The participation and support from the college administration and faculty members were instrumental in the event's success, reinforcing the college's mission to cultivate socially responsible individuals.

On the occasion of International Women's Day, the NSS/DLLE Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a significant event to celebrate and promote the cause of gender equality and women's empowerment. The event featured two main components: a lecture and a wall poster exhibition, aimed at raising awareness and fostering a deeper understanding of these crucial issues.

The event commenced with a lecture titled "Women Empowerment and Gender Equality: Progress and Future Steps," delivered by the distinguished Chief Speakers Shri. Vishwas Bhosale and Mahesh More. Their presentation offered valuable insights into the strides made towards gender equality and the future steps required to continue this progress. The lecture was well-received, providing the audience with a comprehensive understanding of the challenges and achievements related to women's empowerment.

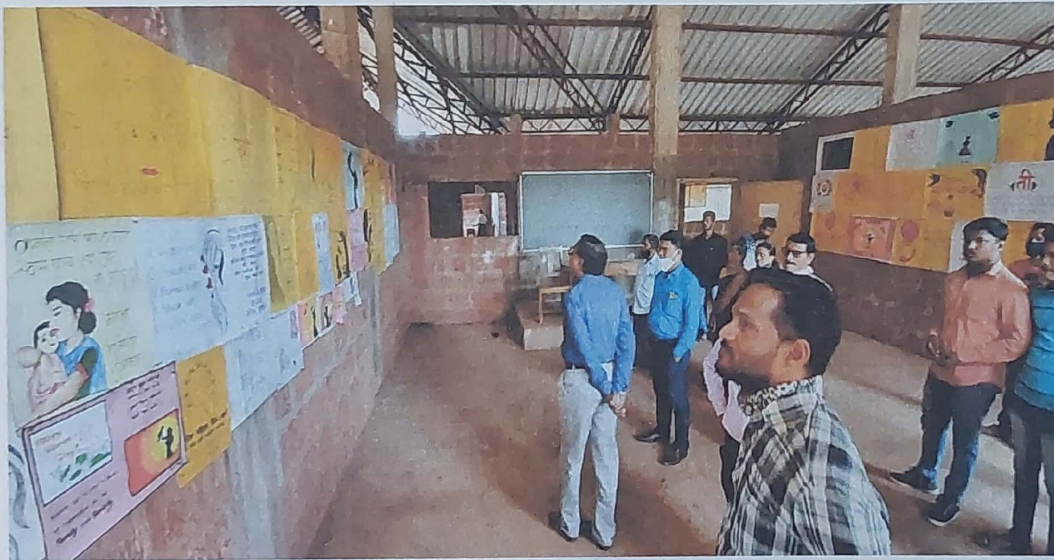

Following the lecture, the Wall Poster Exhibition was inaugurated by Principal Dr. Atmaram D. Kamble. The exhibition featured a series of thought-provoking posters created by students, each highlighting different aspects of women's rights, significant achievements, and ongoing challenges in the realm of gender equality. The posters served as a visual representation of the themes discussed in the lecture, aiming to spark conversation and inspire action among the college community.

The event was chaired by Principal Dr. Atmaram D. Kamble, who emphasized the importance of celebrating International Women's Day and continuing the efforts toward gender equality. Both teaching and non-teaching staff were present, demonstrating a unified commitment to the cause. The event successfully underscored the significance of women's empowerment and gender equality, fostering an environment of reflection, learning, and solidarity within the college community.

The NSS/DLLE Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a commemoration of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's Anniversary. This significant event aimed to honor the life and contributions of Dr. Ambedkar, an architect of the Indian Constitution and a stalwart for social justice.

The celebration took place at the ACS College, Kharepatan, where NSS volunteers and attendees gathered to pay tribute to Dr. Ambedkar. The event commenced with the offering of flowers and image worship, reflecting the deep respect for his legacy. Dr. Ambedkar's relentless efforts towards equality, education, and the upliftment of marginalized communities were highlighted during the event. The participants reaffirmed their commitment to his ideals, emphasizing the importance of unity and social harmony in modern society.

This anniversary celebration served as an opportunity for the NSS/DLLE volunteers and college community to reflect on the enduring values of justice, equality, and education promoted by Dr. Ambedkar. Through this homage, the NSS/DLLE department reinforced its dedication to fostering an inclusive society where every individual has access to equal opportunities. The event not only honored the memory of Dr. Ambedkar but also inspired the participants to continue working towards the realization of his vision for a just and equitable society.
