Blood Donation Camp Report

On 22nd July 2021, a Blood Donation Camp was successfully organized in collaboration with the NSS/ DLLE Department of this college and Lokmat - Sindhudurg. The camp was inaugurated by the esteemed Principal Prof. Dr. Atmaram Kamble, in the presence of several eminent personalities from the village and the hospital community.

The inauguration ceremony was marked by encouraging speeches from Principal Prof. Dr. Atmaram Kamble and the medical officers from SSPM Medical College and Lifetime Hospital Blood Bank, Kudal, Sindhudurg. They expressed their gratitude and extended best wishes to all the donors, emphasizing the critical importance of blood donation in saving lives.

The camp saw a commendable turnout from eligible students and villagers, who participated enthusiastically. Prior to donating blood, participants underwent a series of health checks to ensure their eligibility. A total of 33 individuals received comprehensive health check-ups, 42 had their haemoglobin levels checked, and 38 had their blood groups determined. Despite the rigorous screening process, 19 units of blood were successfully collected during the camp. This valuable contribution will support the local blood bank and assist in medical emergencies within the community.

Post-donation, all participants were provided with refreshments to help them recover and replenish their energy levels. The event was not only a step towards promoting health and community service but also fostered a sense of unity and responsibility among the students and local residents.

The NSS/DLLE Department of ACS College Kharepatan and Lokmat - Sindhudurg extend their heartfelt thanks to all the volunteers, donors, and medical staff who made this event a success. Their collective efforts have contributed significantly to the well-being of the community.

Disaster Relief Activity

The NSS/DLLE Department of our college recently organized a Disaster Relief activity aimed at providing essential support to the flood-affected people of Vilavade, Banda in Sindhudurg district. The event was a significant step towards community service and student engagement in social causes.

Arts, Commerce and Science College
Tal. Kankavli
Dist. Sindhudurg

The activity witnessed active participation from our dedicated students, who played a pivotal role in the distribution process. The event was graced by the presence of Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator of UoM for Sindhudurg District, Mr. Vhankali G.P. ET Kharepatan College along with the Vilavade Grampanchayat Sarpanch and its members. The villagers and eminent personalities of Vilavade also marked their presence, adding value and support to the cause.

A total of 38 relief kits were distributed to the beneficiaries. Each kit, valued between Rs. 1800 to Rs. 2000, contained sufficient grains and basic commodities to sustain a family for approximately 15 to 20 days. This thoughtful arrangement ensured that the immediate nutritional needs of the flood-affected families were adequately met.

The relief activity not only provided essential supplies to those in dire need but also fostered a spirit of service and empathy among the participating students. To keep the volunteers energized and motivated, refreshments were provided during the mid-point of the activity, ensuring they could perform their duties effectively.

The event, held at Vilavade in Banda, Sindhudurg, was a testament to the collective effort of the NSS/DLLE Department, the local community, and the students. It underscored the importance of solidarity and timely intervention in disaster relief efforts.

Overall, the Disaster Relief activity was a commendable initiative that highlighted the NSS/DLLE Department's commitment to community welfare and the enthusiastic participation of our students in meaningful social service.

The NSS/DLLE Department of our college organized a significant relief effort under the theme "Disaster Relief: Support for the Flood-Affected Peoples" in Pombhurle, Sindhudurg. The event saw active participation from students and key community figures. Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, NSS District Coordinator of University of Mumbai (Sindhudurg District), Mr. Vhankali G.P. DLLE Extension Teacher and members of Pombhurle Grampanchayat including Sarpanch Hon. Shri Sadiquebhai Dongarkar were present, alongside villagers and prominent local figures like Shrimati Rashmi Desai, Shrimati Mangal Parab, and Shrimati Kavita Amkar. The primary objective was to aid those affected by recent floods, with a focus on distributing relief kits. A total of 21 kits were distributed, each containing essential commodities estimated to sustain a family for 15-20 days. The approximate cost per kit ranged from Rs. 1800 to Rs. 2000. This initiative aimed not only to provide immediate relief but also to ensure sustenance during the ongoing recovery period.In addition to relief distribution, refreshments were provided to the NSS/DLLE volunteers as they tirelessly engaged in the relief activities. The venue for this commendable effort was Pombhurle, a village adopted by the University as part of its community outreach program.The event highlighted the NSS/DLLE Department's commitment to social responsibility and community welfare. It brought together stakeholders from various sectors to collectively support and uplift the flood-affected population of Pombhurle. Such initiatives underscore the pivotal role educational institutions play in fostering community resilience and solidarity during times of adversity.

The NSS/DLLE Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan organized an extension activity focused on promoting health and fitness among students. The event, centered around the Fit India - Freedom Run 2.0, witnessed enthusiastic participation from the student body.

Students were briefed comprehensively on the objectives and significance of the Fit India - Freedom Run 2.0 initiative. Emphasizing the importance of daily physical activity, they were encouraged to dedicate at least an hour each day to running or walking, covering a distance of 1 to 2 kilometers. This initiative aimed not only at fostering a culture of fitness but also at instilling discipline and routine in students' lives.

Moreover, students were urged to extend their participation beyond the college campus by joining the Fit India - Freedom Run 0.3 in their respective hometowns. This outreach aspect of the activity aimed to broaden the scope of the initiative, spreading awareness and encouraging participation in fitness endeavors beyond the college community.

During the event, participating students demonstrated remarkable commitment, with many covering distances ranging from 500 meters to 3 kilometers. Their active involvement showcased their dedication to embracing a healthier lifestyle and supporting national fitness initiatives.

The activity not only provided students with a platform to engage in physical exercise but also instilled in them a sense of social responsibility towards promoting health and well-being in society. By participating in the Fit India - Freedom Run 0.3, students not only improved their own fitness levels but also contributed to the larger national goal of creating a healthier and fitter India.

In conclusion, the extension activity organized by the NSS/DLLE Department at Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan was a resounding success, fostering a spirit of fitness and wellness among students while also promoting community engagement and social responsibility.

The NSS/DLLE Department of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a vibrant event commemorating Constitution Day on 26th November. The theme, "Celebration of Constitution Day," was aimed at fostering awareness and appreciation for the Indian Constitution among students and faculty.

The event commenced with a poster exhibition and a lecture, followed by a rally that commenced at the main college gate. The rally, inaugurated by College Principal Hon. Dr. Atmaram D. Kamble, featured a soul-stirring solo anthem. It culminated at the college playground amidst the presence of eminent personalities.

A notable highlight was the active participation of 43 students in creating wall posters, showcasing their artistic skills and commitment to the cause. Additionally, homage was paid to Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar through the offering of flowers and image worship.

The program further included a reading of the Preamble and enlightening speeches by Shri. Tanaji and Shrimati Rashmi on the significance of the Indian Constitution. Hon. Shri Vaseem Sayyed, NSS DC, Mr. Vhankali Gajanan P. ET DLLE expressed gratitude for the profound contributions of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar.

College Principal Hon. Dr. Atmaram D. Kamble delivered a guiding discourse on "Sanvidhan... Lokshahiche Sanvardhan...," emphasizing the transformative power of the Constitution in shaping society.

The event witnessed a total of 78 participants, comprising both teaching and non-teaching staff, actively engaging in the activities. While the precise count of beneficiaries averaged, the impact of the event in promoting constitutional values and civic responsibility was undoubtedly profound.

Blood Donation Camp Report

The NSS/DLLE Department of our college successfully organized a Blood Donation Camp, which was inaugurated by the esteemed Principal Prof. Dr. Atmaram Kamble. The event witnessed the presence of several distinguished personalities from the village and the hospital, adding to the significance of the occasion.

In his inaugural speech, Prof. Dr. Kamble, along with the medical officers from the Blood Bank at the District Hospital in Oros, Sindhudurg, extended their heartfelt wishes to all the donors. Their words inspired and encouraged the participants, highlighting the noble act of blood donation as a vital contribution to society.

The camp commenced with a thorough health check-up for all willing participants. A total of 35 individuals underwent health evaluations, while 47 had their haemoglobin levels checked, and 35 had their blood groups tested. Following these preliminary checks, 35 eligible donors were able to contribute a unit of blood each, culminating in the collection of 35 units of blood.

The atmosphere was one of community spirit and dedication, with students actively participating and showing their commitment to the cause. To ensure the well-being of the donors, refreshments were provided, helping them to recover and rejuvenate post-donation.

This initiative by the NSS/DLLE Department not only emphasized the importance of blood donation but also fostered a sense of unity and altruism among the students and the local community. The camp was a testament to the college's on going efforts to promote social responsibility and contribute to public health.
