Report on Gender Equality Activity, Kharepatan College

Arts and Commerce College, Kharepatan organized an event titled "Gender Equality - Progress and Future Goals" on the occasion of International Women's Day. The event aimed to shed light on the advancements made in achieving gender equality and outline future aspirations in this regard. The activity took place on March 8, 2019, at Kharepatan College, with Honorable Principal Dr. A.D. Kamble presiding over the event. Professor Rashmi Desai delivered an enlightening lecture, emphasizing the significance of gender equality and delineating the strides made in its pursuit. The event witnessed active participation from 64 NSS volunteers, along with teaching and non-teaching staff members. Honorable Shri. Vaseem Sayyed, the NSS Program Officer, graced the occasion with his presence, adding value to the discussions and fostering an environment conducive to learning and introspection. The discourse encompassed various facets of gender equality, including socio-economic empowerment, educational opportunities, and societal perceptions. Participants engaged in insightful conversations, reflecting on the progress achieved thus far and delineating future endeavors to ensure equal rights and opportunities for all genders.

The event concluded with a renewed commitment towards fostering a gender-inclusive society, wherein every individual has the freedom to pursue their aspirations without facing discrimination based on gender. Such initiatives play a pivotal role in raising awareness and catalyzing positive change towards a more equitable future.

On the occasion of International Women's Day, Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a significant event to celebrate and promote the cause of gender equality and women's empowerment. The event featured two main components: a lecture and a wall poster exhibition, aimed at raising awareness and fostering a deeper understanding of these crucial issues.

The event commenced with a lecture titled "Women Empowerment and Gender Equality: Progress and Future Steps," delivered by the distinguished Chief Speakers Shri. Vishwas Bhosale and Mahesh More. Their presentation offered valuable insights into the strides made towards gender equality and the future steps required to continue this progress. The lecture was well-received, providing the audience with a comprehensive understanding of the challenges and achievements related to women's empowerment.

Following the lecture, the Wall Poster Exhibition was inaugurated by Principal Dr. Atmaram D. Kamble. The exhibition featured a series of thought-provoking posters created by students, each highlighting different aspects of women's rights, significant achievements, and ongoing challenges in the realm of gender equality. The posters served as a visual representation of the themes discussed in the lecture, aiming to spark conversation and inspire action among the college community.

The event was chaired by Principal Dr. Atmaram D. Kamble, who emphasized the importance of celebrating International Women's Day and continuing the efforts toward gender equality. Both teaching and non-teaching staff were present, demonstrating a unified commitment to the cause. The event successfully underscored the significance of women's empowerment and gender equality, fostering an environment of reflection, learning, and solidarity within the college community.

Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Kharepatan, organized a significant event in commemoration of International Women's Day. The theme of the activity was "Empowering Women through Entrepreneurship and Leadership," aiming to inspire and educate participants on avenues for female empowerment.

The event featured a lecture delivered by the esteemed Principal, Honorable Dr. A. D. Kamble. Dr. Kamble, known for his deep insights and expertise, shared valuable knowledge on the subject, enlightening the audience on the crucial role entrepreneurship and leadership play in empowering women. The session was chaired by the Honorable NSS District Coordinator for Sindhudurg District of University of Mumbai, Shri Vaseem Sayyed. His presence added significance to the event, reflecting institutional support for initiatives promoting gender equality and women's empowerment.

A total of 108 participants, comprising students and both teaching and non-teaching staff, attended the event. Additionally, there were 118 beneficiaries who gained insights and inspiration from the lecture and discussions. The diverse participation underscores the widespread interest and importance attached to advancing gender equality and empowering women within the college community.

Overall, the activity served as a platform for raising awareness, fostering dialogue, and catalyzing action towards creating a more inclusive and equitable society where women are empowered to thrive in entrepreneurship and leadership roles. Such initiatives are vital for driving positive change and fostering a culture of gender equality.

The event aimed to educate students on the importance of creating and maintaining a safe and respectful environment within the educational institution. The program was held at the Chandrakant Parisa Raibagkar Multipurpose Hall, featuring Dr. Shrikant Patil, an expert, as the guest speaker. Dr. Patil arrived at 9:30 AM, preparing to deliver his insights to the eager audience. The program commenced at 10:00 AM with a Deep Prajwalan ceremony, symbolizing the illumination of knowledge and awareness. Principal Dr. A. D. Kamble chaired the event, underscoring the critical need for awareness and preventive measures against sexual harassment. Asst. Prof. Rashmi Desai introduced Dr. Patil, highlighting his expertise and significant contributions to the field of sexual harassment prevention and education. Dr. Shrikant Patil's session provided students with valuable information on understanding and preventing sexual harassment. He elaborated on various forms of harassment, the legal protections available, and the importance of fostering a culture of respect and safety. His engaging presentation encouraged students to be vigilant and proactive in recognizing and addressing harassment. The program concluded at 11:30 AM with a vote of thanks from Asst. Prof. Gajanan Vhankali, who expressed gratitude to Dr. Patil for his enlightening session and to all participants for their involvement. This awareness program significantly enhanced the students' understanding and commitment to creating a safe and respectful educational environment.

Arts, Commerce and Science College, Kharepatan, organized an impactful activity centered around the theme of Women's Rights. On the 13th of October 2021, 25 NSS volunteers participated enthusiastically in a street-play held in Kharepatan. This initiative aimed to raise awareness about the importance of women's rights and gender equality within the community. The street-play, a dynamic and engaging form of communication, was chosen to effectively convey the message to a wider audience. It depicted various scenarios highlighting the challenges faced by women in society and the importance of empowering them to claim their rights. The performance resonated with both the onlookers and the participants, sparking discussions and reflections on the topic. Support and encouragement further fueled the enthusiasm of the volunteers. Teaching and non-teaching staff from the college also attended the event, demonstrating their solidarity with the cause. While the exact number of beneficiaries couldn't be specified, the impact of the street-play extended beyond mere numbers. It ignited a sense of responsibility and advocacy among the participants, inspiring them to continue their efforts in promoting gender equality and women's rights in society.
